

The working environment in perspective

Working environment input, the foundation for a safe and healthy working environment

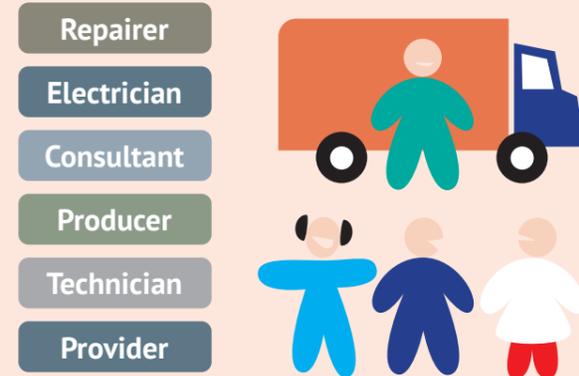

Systematic prevention

Development

Actors in the company

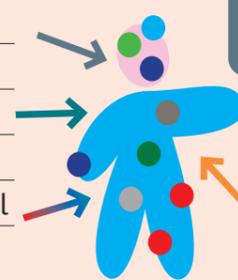

Suppliers to the company

Impacts

- Physical
- Mental
- Chemical
- Biological
- Musculoskeletal
- Accidents

Working environment culture
Values and opinions

Registration of Near misses and Accident analyses

Risk assessment

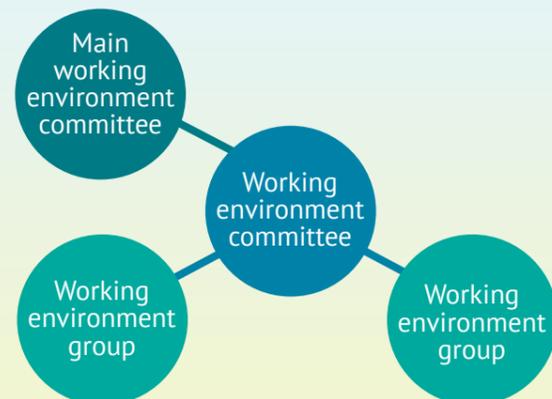

Planning
Co-involvement

Workplace assessment

Preparing goals
and strategy

Accomplishing the company's intentions

Organising the working environment

Strategic working environment tasks

- Plan, manage and coordinate the input
- Working environment discussion and organisation
- Information and consultation
- Internal working environment co-operation

Operational tasks

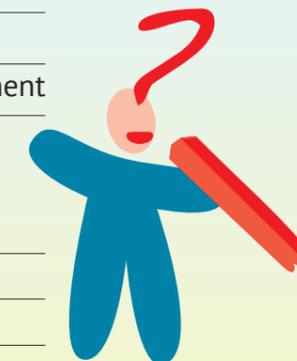

- Planning, prevention and inspection
- Workplace assessment and mitigating risks
- Investigating near misses and accidents
- Influencing, informing and ensuring training

Strategic methods

- Working environment policy
- Working environment strategy
- Annual discussion of the working environment
- Knowledge sharing and skills development

Operational methods

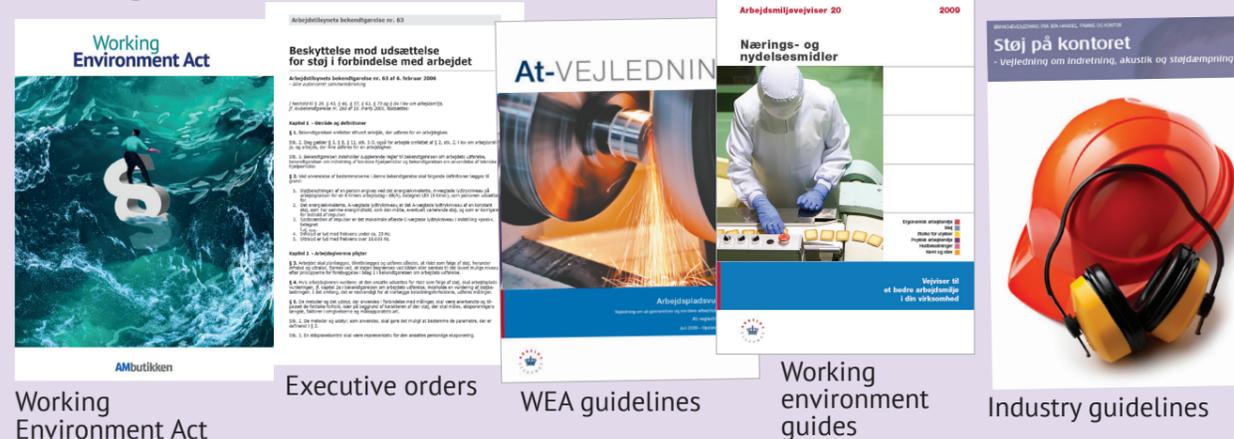

- Dialogue, checklists, communication
- Onboarding new employees
- Instruction in the work performance
- Checks, rounds and follow-up

Planning of the working environment
organisation

Carrying out the working environment
input

Knowledge base

External actors

The intentions of the authorities

Goals, frameworks, rules and initiatives

The outline is for guidance only with references to the sections on the topics.